Abstract—This document is very simple \LaTeX template, serving for personal study purposes as a \LaTeX beginner. In practical academic paper writing, I need to add many other packages. As for multi-author cases, basically there are two options, one is shown in this paper. Another has been commented. Type Ctrl + T to (un)comment.

Index Terms—multi-authors, abstract, keywords, sections, acknowledgements, references.

I. INTRODUCTION

This file is very simple \LaTeX template, just a reference for \LaTeX beginners. In practical academic paper writing, you need to add corresponding packages. For more detail, interested readers please refer to: IEEE manuscript website or go to the next url: <https://www.ieee.org/conferences/publishing/templates.html> or open the next file File.txt.

It's also possible to link directly any word or any sentence in your document.

II. PROBLEM FORMULATION

The problem can be mathematically formulated as:

$$\sum_{i=0}^{\infty} a_i x^i \quad (1)$$

In Eq. (1), ...

III. CONCLUSION

In this paper, we investigate ...

REFERENCES

Please number citations consecutively within brackets [1]. The sentence punctuation follows the bracket [2]. Refer simply to the reference number, as in [3]—do not use “Ref. [3]” or “reference [3]” except at the beginning of a sentence: “Reference [3] was the first ...”

Number footnotes separately in superscripts. Place the actual footnote at the bottom of the column in which it was cited. Do not put footnotes in the abstract or reference list. Use letters for table footnotes.

Unless there are six authors or more give all authors' names; do not use “et al.”. Papers that have not been published, even if they have been submitted for publication, should be cited as “unpublished” [4]. Papers that have been accepted for publication should be cited as “in press” [5]. Capitalize only the first word in a paper title, except for proper nouns and element symbols.

For papers published in translation journals, please give the English citation first, followed by the original foreign-language citation [6].
